- I ask a deposit of US$500 (Non refundable) to secure a place on my building schedule. When I'm about to start work on your lute, I will ask for a further payment, to be determined according to the price of the instrument. I will ask for a final payment upon the instrument's completion, before shipping or pick-up.
- Final payment includes, balance due on the instrument, shipping and insurance.
- For U.S customers, taxes will be charged when applicable.
- There are no cases, but I can ship the instrument in a plywood case (+ $50.00) that could be use as a simple hardcase.
- If you need a special instrument that is not in the catalogue I am always open to new proposals.
- Shipping prices are depending on how far.
- Waiting time for an instrument is 6 months, but this could vary a bit depending on how busy is the workshop.
